

ACT EU multi-stakeholder platform kick off workshop

Panel – Transparency of Clinical Trials

- Transparency versus confidentiality
- What are the necessary documents for public access

ACT EU should be a platform that facilitates and lobbies for transparency and at the same time advocates for the protection of sponsors' rights and better communication and dissemination of science in general and of the reality of CT in particular. ACT EU should be able to represent all stakeholders' views and respond to their needs.